

February 9, 2016

For Immediate Release

Follow up contact: Charlotte Layman, Community Library Resources Manager
509.575.3422 or clayman@yvl.org

Yakima Valley Community Reads: The Girl Who Wrote in Silk

This March Yakima Valley Libraries invites the community to participate in Yakima Valley Community Reads: The Girl Who Wrote in Silk by Kelli Estes. The program begins March 1st and culminates March 31st.

What is it? A community reading program that brings us all together to share our love of books and reading. Twice a year Yakima Valley Libraries presents the Yakima Valley Community Reads, a valley-wide reading event held in the spring and the fall in which one title is read and shared throughout our Yakima Valley. Yakima Valley Libraries, connecting people and ideas.

What to expect? Fun! Excitement! A great read! An opportunity to talk about the book with the author! Kelli Estes hails from the Yakima Valley and will be in town to participate in book discussions. This is the first book from this fantastic new author! For more information about Kelli go to <http://www.kelliestes.com/>.

The schedule for the Valley Reads is as follows:

Books Available March 1!

Tue. 3/22

- 2:00pm – West Valley Library book discussion
- 6:00pm – Selah Library book discussion

Wed. 3/23

- 2:00pm – Sunnyside Library book discussion
- 6:30pm – West Valley Library book discussion

Thur. 3/24

- 2:00 – Naches Library book discussion
- 7:00pm – Yakima Central Library author talk & book signing

The online book discussion will be available at

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1485574561694649/?fref=nf>

What do I need to do? Join us! Pick up your book, invite your friends, read and enjoy! You are invited to pick up your book beginning March 1st at any YVL location. There are a limited number of books so they will be first come, first serve. Books have been made possible by the Yakima Valley Libraries Foundation. Additionally, we will provide simultaneous access to the ebook and downloadable audiobook available through the YVL OverDrive webpage from March 1st- 31st.